FARMVILLE.

The recent past of our town has been of thrilling interest. The old veterans were with us one day, and a memorable day it will remain in the history of Farmville. The c were some sixty of them, all of them "wearing of the gray" now, many bowed under the weight of years, carrying on their heads the snows of many winters, but ready to "yell" at the mention of Dixie, and, if occasion offered, would no doubt follow the black plume of Stuart as in days of yore. The address made to them by President McAlister, of Hampd n-Sidney, was a gem of the "purest ray." The dinner prepared by the "Daughters" had about i the flavor and the abundance of the Southside Virginia variety, and those who had not before received them are now wearing the crosses of honor.

The Normal commencement began and ended in a blaze of glory, and now we are i. the midst of the Hampden-Sidney closing ceremonials, and then will follow a brief season of quiet, when we will be welcoming the summer students. There is no let up in life's warfare. "Rest is rust" and stagnation is death.

Mr. H. W. Edmunds has returned from a winter in Florida looking "fat and fine." He was a brave Confederate soldier and wears on his body a badge of honor which was received in the forefront of the line of a bloody battle. Mrs. Edmunds is president of the local branch of the Daughters of the Confederacy and one of the most enthusiastic and useful of its members.

Dr. White has so far recovered from the murderous assault which was made upon him as to be more active than ever.

Mr. W. P. Venable, cashier of the Planters' Bank, is one of the leading spirits in the movement for a bank at Arvonia, in Buckingham. Busy men can always find time to attend to something else while loafers find it burdensome to change from goods box to goods box.

Great was the consternation in one of our households on last Sunday when it was discovered at the dinner table that the strawberry cream had salt in it. For the time being it was reckoned as a calamity and the recovery from the shock was slow.

Our warehouses look lonesome but there will be "something doing" when the season opens again. Look out for a good report from the Star, under the management of Messrs. Griggs & Redd. Buckingham and Prince Edward. You can't beat the combination.

I am told that the Methodists of Farmville have raised $25,000 for their new church building. A number of the young men of the church have subscribed to the fund most liberally. There was great sorrow when the Rev. Mr. Winn was removed from this field, but his successor, Rev. Mr. Hatcher, is filling the vacancy and doing the work nobly and well. The services at this church, from Sunday to Sunday. Are made especially attractive to the young people by reason of the very excellent music which is always rendered.

The new passenger depot of the Norfolk & Western is a positive luxury at all times, but especially so at commencement times when crowds come and go. I don't know how we ever handled ourselves in the cramped quarters of the old depot on such occasions.

Farmville didn't make a success of the knitting mill, as she should have done, but she has never yet gone back on tobacco. Come when it may, and no matter in what "questionable shape," the ready cash is always there to welcome it. You can only smoke it out or spit it out Farmville does neither, but receives it gratefully and deals with it nobly.

Our market was never better supplied with meats, fruits and vegetables, but the old-time May cherry is conspicuous by its absence. I wonder that it is largely cultivated, for, in my opinion, no better fruit was ever known to the markets of earth.

A summer dullness will soon settle on the town, and the m rchants will whittle in the shade while the farmers work in the sunshine. But the cards will soon change, and farmers will be restl g in front of blazing wood fires and the merchants will be working with no time in which to warm the tips of their fingers by the coal stove.

The home of Mrs. Col. Walker is very beautiful of itself, and is made more so by its summer environment, while that of Mr. J. J. Walker is a fit companion for it. It is a subject of regret that these palatial homes do not occupy some of the graceful hilltops of our town, where they might shine out in all their glory.

The garden of Mr. J. A. Scott is the best cared for of all our gardens, and the flower garden of Mrs. Governor McKinney is most attractive.

Mr. R. L. Anderson is still on the sick list and is sadly missed from our business and church circles.

Mayor Blackton looks immensely comfortable with another undisputed term before him.

As yet no suggestions have been made for a Fourth of July celebration. The experts who were wont to make our Brunswick stews on such occasions are all dead.

Charlotte

June 7, 1906.

Charlotte has been silent for some time. Although quiet, her farmers are busy as usual with their various duties. The housewives are never idle and the young people are ever on the alert to find some way to entertain themselves and others. So our absence from your columns surely doesn't mean idleness. After this long absence I greet with much pleasure the many readers of our newsy paper, the A. and B. TIMES.

Does it seem real that this month is the first of the "good old summer time?" What a short time it seems to some of us since the new year came in, and at the closing of this month the year 1906 will be half a go, but as time hastens on we are beginning to realize more scarcely that "Life is but an empty dream." I am quite sure that June receives a very cordial welcome indeed to the great number of school girls and boys as this means a vacation for them.

Miss Arnie Wheeler, who was at tending the Appomattox High School, returned to her home this week. We ar all glad to have her in our midst again.

Miss Addie L. Hunter left on Friday last to visit her sister, Mrs. C. B. Hancock, of Bluefield, W. Va.

Misses Effie and Louise Wingfield are visiting friends near West Appomattox, this week.

Miss Addie Baker, near Venner, is visiting her sister, Mrs. M. E Hunter, near Red House.

Miss Alice Rush will leave soon to visit friends in Halifax county.

Mr. Hudson Wilson made a short trip to see his home people last week.

I notice in the columns there another of our correspondents absent Come, give us the news from your community.

Undoubtedly Princess Ena is going to be one of the most popular queens that ever accepted a position in that capacity in Spain.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood

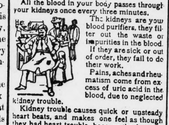
All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.



The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood

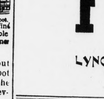
If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work.

Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.



Home of Swamp-Root.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

If you would reach the homes of the people in Southside Virginia, especially Appomattox and Buckingham counties, place your advertisement in this paper.
